FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION

MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS

The Alberta Fish and Game Association strongly believes immediate legislative action is necessary to fully protect public interest in and implement long-term utilization of Crown lands.

Legislation should be initiated to accomplish the following:

1. The amount of land under control of the Provincial Government should not be diminished. Further acquisition in the settled areas of the province should be encouraged.
2. Public lands should be managed in a manner that will fully protect our environment from adverse effects.
3. An inventory of all public lands should be undertaken to provide a basis for utilization, preservation, and restoration.
4. Public lands should be managed to meet the diverse needs of the people, on a basis of sound use. (Primarily on the integration of natural resources and social values).
5. Economics should be a secondary consideration for public land management. Conservation of resources and environment should be the primary consideration.
6. We believe Crown land should be managed for "multiple use", producing the broadest possible benefit to society on a long-term basis.
7. Lands should be acquired under public ownership to guarantee public control of shorelines, river frontages, etc., to ensure future needs for recreation, wildlife habitat, and maintain natural values.
8. Authority for Crown land and resource management should reside with experienced professionals, not subject to political control through legislative action.
9. Managing agencies should have the authority to establish advisory councils, and such councils should be free of legislative control.
10. A new mineral mining act should be created, providing:
  - a. for the recording and clearance of existing mining claims;
  - b. for the encouragement of responsible mineral exploration with regulations keeping environmental damage to a minimum;
  - c. protection of investment and security of tenure during development;
  - d. for the retention of surface rights in public ownership;
  - e. for surfaces to be restored to an acceptable condition;
  - f. for alternate methods in lieu of strip mining;
  - g. for the Provincial Government to acquire outstanding claims or interests on public lands;
  - h. for equitable royalties to be paid to the Alberta Government on all resources extracted, mined or produced;
  - i. for the Department of Lands and Forests to administer mineral claims on all public lands;
  - j. Public land policies must consider wildlife as an equal in competition for grazing, with financial responsibility or penalty for persons abusing or overgrazing Crown lands;
  - k. Timber should be harvested in a manner that insures consideration as to watershed protection, soil erosion, wildlife, recreation, and surface restoration;
  - l. Administration of Crown land use is the responsibility of the Provincial Government, a n d should not be subject to conformity with local planning, zoning or regulations;
  - m. The Department of Lands and Forests should have authority to enforce rules and regulations on all public lands;
  - n. Management for Crown lands should provide fulfillment of the basic essentials of society. Such management should provide a program for acquiring and developing reasonable equity across private lands, utilizing methods of purchase, exchange and easement.
11. We strongly object to a general recreation land - use fee. There should not be a fee for the non-commercial use of undeveloped public land. No citizens should be precluded from use of public land by the levying of a fee.
12. The public must be made aware of all policy and proposals dealing with public land management, use or disposal.
13. Long-range land-use planning should be established to achieve these objectives, with funds allocated on a priority basis from the general fund of the Provincial Treasury.
14. Tom O'Keefe, President Alberta Fish and Game Association.

same time ignoring one fourth of its population.

The step the United Nations took was the right one. Canada had encouraged the decision, as well as did many other responsible and peaceful nations. It is interesting to note that all NATO countries voted for the admission of mainland China. (With the exception of the United States).

It is unfortunate that the people of Taiwan must suffer as a result of the pretensions of their government. Because the government in Taiwan claims to represent all of China, and does not, the 14 million people on Taiwan that they do have legitimate claims to represent now have no voice at all in the United Nations. This unfortunate fact is not a result of what has been done by Canada or the rest of the United Nations, but of the reluctance of their own leaders to face the facts.

Volunteer Fire Dept Banquet Held

The Coleman Volunteer Fire Brigade held their annual banquet in the Catholic Hall on Saturday, November 27. This was well attended by the firemen and their wives, mayor and Mrs. Holyk and councilmembers and their wives and also a guest speaker from the fire commissioners office (Inspector Andy O'Toole) from the fire commissioner's office, Lethbridge and Mrs. O'Toole.

Mr. O'Toole extended greetings to the brigade from A. Bridges, fire commissioner of Alberta and spoke on fires throughout the area. He spoke very highly of the importance of an efficient fire brigade of our town. After inspecting one of the fires he stated that the alertness of our firemen saved $50,000 of the building that would have been completely destroyed if it would have not been for the way the firemen arrived at the scene.

They not only work at preventing fires, but also contribute their untiring efforts toward muscular dystrophy.

Mayor John Holyk on behalf of his wife and the council, thanked the brigade for their invitation and highly commended them for their efficiency at putting out fires. He stated that the councilmembers are always willing to co-operate and purchase up-to-date equipment for the safety and protection of the residents and citizens of the surrounding area.

Fire chief, Henry Zak called on assistant chief, Ed Adell for a speech and also welcomed new members of our brigade as well as new members of our council.

Joe Waveran spoke briefly of the way the fires are extinguished when brigade was first organized at the time a wooden wagon was used with horses on it, and pulled by firemen. After this was brought to the scene of the fire, water had to be pumped from nearby wells, by the time this operation took place the building would be engulfed by flames. He stated that the brigade has come a long way, with its modern equipment at their disposal.

Following the banquet fire chief Zak thanked the president of the Coleman C.W.L., Mrs. M. Strickland and the ladies for the lovely banquet they prepared.

This event came to a close after which the evening of dancing in the Elks Hall where a large crowd assembled. Music was supplied by Dianne's orchestra.

The only sea otter in captivity in Canada, John is quite an actor and has proven to be a great hit with the visitors. When he first arrived at the aquarium he weighed 44 pounds, he now weighs 52 pounds.

THE MAYOR'S CORNER

The Coleman Light and Water meeting was held at the Council Chambers on Tuesday where a new executive was formed. Mayor John Holyk was elected President, Mr. T. Krycka, secretary treasurer, with the following, acting as directors: Mr. Jerry Rejman; Graham Atkinson, Joe Waveran; W. Skura and E. Misura. After reviewing several applications for Assistant Secretary Treasurer, it was decided to accept Mr. Don Fleming for this position. He was born in Coleman, attended Lethbridge Junior College to take a course in Accounting and Bookkeeping, was Assistant Administrator at the C.N.P. Municipal Hospital in Coleman, working there for 4 1/2 years, after which

Crownsnest Pass To Have New Ambulance Service

A private corporation is being formed to be known as the Pass Ambulance Service. This had once been provided by rate Paine of Blairmore. This ceased November 30. He held this position for quite a number of years.

The unit will negotiate a contract with the municipalities concerned to operate the service with funds from the municipalities to pay for the service, plus any fees for service received from persons helped by the ambulance.

Members of the Crownsnest Pass General Hospital Board and Ernie Luni, George Siska and Rene Rinaldi all acting as private individuals, will comprise the board of directors of the corporation.

This action is being taken as there is no where in the Hospitals Act a provision for hospital boards to provide ambulance service. However there is a provision in the Municipal Act for local government to do it. Meanwhile preliminary plans are being drawn up for the Senior Citizens Nursing Home complex to be built adjoining the east end of the C.N.P. General Hospital.

Plans of the proposed unit are on display in the hospital board where everyone is invited to examine and peruse the plans, also a book is provided there where interested persons can express their views and suggestion for the unit. The Nursing Home board is to borrow the entire sum to build the 60 bed unit. It is disclosed that 30 of these beds will be used by senior citizens. The appropriate sum will be paid by the Alberta Housing Corporation to the nursing home board to cover repayment of the loan on the 30 beds, in lieu of a direct grant.

Plans also indicate that all 60 beds will be built to nursing home specifications (these providing more facilities for patient care). This will provide for flexibility of occupancy. If there were more than 30 persons requiring nursing home type care, the unit would be able to accommodate them. It is anticipated that loan repayment and operational costs can be covered from provincial grants on a patient day basis.

Wheat Pool Delegates Express Dissatisfaction

The annual meeting of Alberta Wheat Pool delegates has expressed its dissatisfaction with proposed tax legislation respecting co-operative organizations.

Yesterday Alberta Pool delegates directed the following telegram to Finance Minister Edgar Benson, Hon. R.E. Stufeldt and M.P. Pat Mahoney, Marcel Lambert and Alf Glavay.

"The delegates of Alberta Wheat Pool assembled in their annual meeting have discussed the proposals for tax reform as they pertain to co-operatives. On behalf of the 50,000 farmers whom they represent, they wish to express most serious concern over the provisions of Section 135 which they feel is a real attempt to deny the right of association on which co-operatives are organized. They sincerely request you and your colleagues to consider some amendments to remove the provisions discriminatory to the co-operative method of business."

SIGNATURES ON CHECKS, LEGAL PAPERS, AND

A name signed M. L. Gibbons is fine for a man, but seems a bit masculine for a woman, even on a cheque. A cheque signature may carry a woman's given name plus her married name if her married name is a common one and her first one usual, too. For example, Elizabeth Green might better sign her name Elizabeth Grainger Green, or she may use her husband's name, signing her name Mrs. Bertram Green, but never Mrs. Elizabeth Green, which is considered poor etiquette. The lawyer suggested (Mrs.) Elizabeth Green.

A widow shows respect for her husband by keeping his name and by using it socially in every way. She is always Mrs. George Grayson, not Mrs. Alice Grayson, no matter how long she survives her husband. On legal documents, cheques, and in business matters she may be Alice Grayson, but not

Mrs. Alice Grayson. If it is necessary to show the prefix she signs "Mrs. George Grayson" in parenthesis under her signature.

A man does not need to put (Mr.) before his name unless his name is one that might be mistaken for a woman's name, for example Marion, Leslie, Cecil, etc. If your name is very usual and you are writing to someone with whom you are on first-name terms, but who may not be able to identify your first name signature too readily, sign yourself (Dorothy) Preston, not just "Dorothy," for the recipient may know three or four Dorothy's who might be writing such a letter to her.

PRAIRIE WOOL

A note from R. B. Murdoch of Birsay, Sask., tells about a couple of decks of playing cards in perfect condition after 36 years of use. Says Mr. Murdoch: "These cards were shown to me by my uncle, Gordon Handford, of Eyebrow, Sask., the other day, and they are without a doubt in first-rate shape. He was in the hardware business (in Eyebrow) and bought these cards in 1935 at a cost of $10.50 wholesale. My uncle and aunt are great cribbage and bridge fans, so you can imagine how much the cards have been used. They have, of course, been washed many times, but they're as good as ever!"

Editorially SPEAKING

Post Office Department Uses "Funny Words"

"Quality Control Section" — "made detailed investigations" — "now regular and satisfactory service" is terminology frequently used by post office officials when answering a complaint letter relative to postal service.

When it takes three days for a letter to arrive from Kimberley; four days from Calgary and three to Vancouver we wonder where the phrase "quality control section" was coined.

When a newspaper takes five weeks to be delivered to a home in England and the customer complains we wonder how a "detailed investigation" is carried out; when a customer at the same address in Edmonton complains on two consecutive occasions we wonder how the phrase "Mr. — is now receiving regular and satisfactory service" is arrived at?

With the post office announcing eight cents for every normal letter mailed beginning January 1, 1972, it would appear the post office department should change its gilt-edge terminology for some basic English language or else give us some dedicated postal service for the money we expend.

Enough Is Enough

We wonder why the greatest professional debating society in the world — The United Nations — do not put their words into aggressiveness and in spite of no invitations for intervention by the countries involved, step in and settle some of the needless bloodshed in North Ireland, Pakistan and lay the law down to the sword rattling between Egypt and Israel.

The security nations of the UN have taken the stand it would be contrary to become involved in what has been defined as civil strife in Ireland and Pakistan.

The smaller UN nations do not agree with this definition. They feel the undeclared war in North Ireland is being fueled by an outside nation. The Republic of Ireland, India they claim is interfering with Pakistani affairs.

While the rhetoric flows in New York the blood flows from thousands of innocent people in two supposedly civilized areas of the world.

And when it all boils down the strife is over nothing more than political power and monetary greed. There is just no excuse for the bombing of civilian institutions in Pakistan by regular Pakistani troops or the blowing up of civilian hospitals and injuring civilians in North Ireland.

And the two major influential religious figures — the archbishop of Canterbury and the Pope — seems helpless in spite of their peace overtures to bring an end to the bloodshed caused by irresponsible militant groups. From news reports we would gather the Roman Coliseum in the days of Caesar where gladiators fought and died was a "cream-puff" affair compared to the atrocities being committed in Pakistan and Ireland today, termed by one observer as barbaric.

Many Christmas cards next month will bear the phrase — "goodwill towards men." The phrase seems sort of hollow when words are being used instead of some protective action to save innocents from the horrors of war and starvation.

WEDDING VOWS EXCHANGED

Rev. J. R. Allan officiated at a lovely double-ring ceremony in the St. Aidan's United Church, October 23, 1971, when Lynn Frances daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Groves of Victoria, B.C., exchanged vows with James Brian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zak of Coleman.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor-length gown of white crepe with lily point sleeves. A pearl tiara held her flowing veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Elaine Dillabough as matron of honor and Miss Marilyn Groves, as bridesmaid. They wore identical mini dresses of pink flowered voile and carried cascading bouquets of pink carnations and white shasta mums. Mr. Bob Zak, brother of the groom, acted as bestman. Ushers were Messers, Rick Reid and Jim Tarbuck.

A reception followed at the Gordon Head Recreation Centre. Mr. Harold Penney gave the toast to the bride.

For her going away outfit the bride chose a three-piece purple pantsuit. The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip through the western States and Alberta. They will reside in Victoria, where the groom is employed.

Among the numerous out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zak, Coleman; Mr. and Mrs. Edna, Blairmore; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chabillon, Blairmore; Mrs. Vera Groves, Coleman. Also many others from Coleman, Blairmore, Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver, Surrey and Duncan, B.C.

EDMONTON 14, Alberta.

ARIES — March 21 to April 20
A very romantic and exciting time is coming up fast for persons born in the sign of Aries. Have "fun" by all means, but DON'T go overboard! You may be "pushing" things a little too hard.

TAURUS — April 21 to May 20
Aspects in the zodiac are MOST favourable for Taurus right now. There may be a touch of uncertainty concerning "communications" but it should pass very quickly.

GEMINI — May 21 to June 20
A MUCH better set of aspects is facing Gemini now. It would be wise to keep a sharp eye on business developments and when the opportunity presents itself, make "brood" over the past. There's better times ahead!

CANCER — June 21 to July 21
If you will "think" before you "speak" you've got the world on a string at this time. There may be a slight tendency to "jump to conclusions" this next week. Take things slowly, and all will be well.

LEO — July 22 to August 21
"Calm, serene and peaceful" is the astrological weather picture for persons born under the sign of Leo. Communications with others may be a little snarled up, but it's not important.

VIRGO — August 22 to Sept. 21
If you happen to find that a difference of opinion between yourself and persons born in Sagittarius or Gemini is bothering you, the best thing to do for the present is, forget it! It's not worth getting all riled-up over.

LIBRA — Sept. 22 to Oct. 22
This is one case where a personal horoscope (your exact date and year of birth) is necessary. The position of Mars at your time of birth, will have much to do with success or failure. Anyway, you'll have a lot of fun!

SCORPIO — Oct. 23 to Nov. 21
A general feeling of "well-being" is present in the sign of Scorpio at this time. You have many chances to succeed in particularly any business venture you choose to enter.

SAGITTARIUS — Nov. 22 to Dec. 20
Get down off your high horse and listen to the good advice which will come from a friend this week. You may not think so, but things are going to run smoothly from now on.

CAPRICORN — Dec. 21 to Jan. 19
Don't try to do too much at one time right now. If you do, you'll only tire yourself needlessly. Make plans, by all means, but let others do the ground work.

AQUARIUS — Jan. 20 to Feb. 18
Conditions are more settled and comfortable than they have been for years in the sign of Aquarius night now. Don't allow yourself to "brood" over the past. There's better times ahead!

PISCES — Feb. 19 to Mar. 20
Everything is SPLENDID for most Pisces individuals at this time IF they heed one little piece of astrological advice. DON'T get into arguments. Be as innocent as a newborn baby.

★ LIGHT and SHADOW ★

It happens to everyone who waits, or attempts to, so I am told, a time when, no matter how diligent the effort to produce, the mind remains devoid of inspiration, and the sheet in the typewriter bare. So, hampered by the publisher's impending deadline, I have tossed together poems, a pot-pourri, unclassified in theme, their only common denominator, their difference.

LETTER FROM THE AUDIENCE

dear Bertold
we have received your message. It is our earnest hope the child may be kept alive until love comes we are glad you held the child so tight were able to inscribe

the circle on uneven ground
Yes high and clear we heard the thousand nightgales sing out above the walled garden . . .
it is our earnest hope the child's limbs in the ordinary way of things will lengthen —
—Elizabeth Gourlay.

CHANGES

They walk through fields of marrow
Eliminating the possibility of mental acrobatics
Their music is discordant—
An octave above bearable.
There is dew there. It whistles.
The sun rises from under deep green vines,
Trailing the wind behind.
They emerge — breathless.
—Judi Faye.

the wooden owl above my balcony

That owl whose apartment was the park outside singing in the mid-

Limestone and brickwork of Kingston singing
a high sweet song
till midnight was noon and gold

Born 30 Years Too Soon -- Again

My tired old eyes almost popped out and ran down my cheeks the other day, like a couple of peeled grapes, when I read about the incomes in pay to our armed forces.

"My God," I groaned to my wife, "will you listen to this? A buck private is going to get $480 a month. She wasn't impressed. But she perked up her ears and turned down the corners of her mouth when my next remark: "And a colonel will be drawing $1,960," her brother-in-law is a colonel.

Out came the pencil and she started some rapid calculation. It was about half an hour, while I sat there shaking my head with a mixture of shocked disbelief and impatient nausea, she blurted, "Do you realize that young pup is going to be making $2,500 a year?"

I nodded morosely. I had done it in my head, give or take a few hundred dollars, in eight seconds.

"Why -- why, that's impossible," and her voice went up an octave. I just took the paper over and pointed to the cold, black print.

It was like swallowing a horse-pill without benefit of water, for both of us. While I had been slogging along serving humanity as a weekly newspaper editor, some times hitting a high of $6,200 a year, and later as a teacher, he had been palivating around to all sorts of glamorous and exciting places.

Aide-de-camp to an Air Vice Marshal in Europe. Boar-hunting in Germany. Commander of a fighter squadron in France. Liaison officer in Paris. Desk job in Ottawa. Back to Europe. Back to Canada to lead a fighter squadron at Val d'Or, guarding us against the Eskimos, then a soft touch at Colorado Springs in the States, watching the punk button, and skiing weekends. There was only one bright spot in my mind as I reviewed this circuit. He's now stuck in Syracuse. Who wants to live in Syracuse?

But my wife wasn't finished. "Why didn't you stay in the air force?" I gave her some lousy reply about being my own man, and not wanting to wallow around in peace-time on the taxpayer's money. I didn't mention that the air force wouldn't have had me if World War III had broken out twenty minutes after World War II ended.

Then, in the gloomy silence that followed, I started thinking back. When I joined up, we got $1.30 a day or $40 a month. I sent home $20 a month to my mother. We got paid every two weeks, so I had a handsome $10 to blow. I'll never forget the time I lost my $10 bill about twenty minutes after pay parade. It was at Manning Pool in Toronto, with next couple of weeks were slim pickings. But I made it, by borrowing. That's when I started borrowing, and I've never caught up since.

But it wasn't so bad, really. Beer was 10c a draft and a dollar went a long way. I didn't smoke. Girls didn't expect you to take them out for drinks, dinner and the theatre. They just expected you to take them out.

Hotel rooms were no problem. On weekend leave, one of us would check into the old King Eddie in Toronto, and take a single room. Price was $3.00, with 10 per cent off for servicemen. Then about five more would sneak up and six of us would share a single room, sleeping three on the bed, crossways, the others on the floor. Average cost, 45c each. We didn't need much sleep anyway.

Wages went up with each increase in rank. As I recall it, when

Canada Works

You can be a moving force in creating jobs for Canadians.

Canada works when Canadians get involved together. So the Federal Government is putting 498 million dollars to work, through a series of specific programs, to help create jobs for Canadians.

CANADA WORKS WITH YOU

You're a major force in making the program work. We're counting on you, either on your own initiative or through your community groups, to come up with ideas for the Local Initiatives Program. For example, you may have a social service project or an idea such as a cultural program, improvements to a standard housing project, assistance to the handicapped, or others that create employment and make your community a better place.

The Training-on-the-Job Program will expand opportunities for training for those who are unemployed or have little work experience, and will work through business and industry.

For those with some basic work experience, the Canada Manpower Training Program has been extended to help provide additional learning.

CANADA WORKS WITH BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

A program of tax credits or direct payments to employers encourages them to add trainees to their staffs through the Training-on-the-Job Program.

CANADA WORKS WITH MUNICIPALITIES

The Local Initiatives Program will help municipalities create additional jobs through worthwhile community projects. Provincial governments will work with municipalities to use this program to support and spur community projects.

CANADA WORKS WITH THE PROVINCES

There's a Federal-Provincial Employment Loans Program designed to create jobs by financing additional capital works projects throughout Canada. We'll be speeding up the program of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to get more homes, student housing, and sewage treatment projects under way.

Loans will also be made to exhibition commissions, boards and associations to get people working on multi-purpose fair and trade buildings.

CANADA WORKS WITH FEDERAL PROJECTS

There will be more job opportunities in expanded maintenance and improvement activities on Federal buildings; transportation facilities; forest and park projects; and many others.

WHERE IT ALL WORKS TOGETHER

It starts at your Canada Manpower Centre. For advice and assistance on any of the programs you feel apply to you or your community, contact your local Canada Manpower Centre. They'll be happy to help you.

When Canadians get involved together, CANADA WORKS.

The Energy Saver... A Dishwasher

Why Do I Need a Dishwasher? Probably the most encouraging feature of an automatic dishwasher is that it saves precious time. Besides doing the work for you, dishes are cleaner than you can possibly achieve by hand. A combination of extra hot water and powerful detergent gives these hygienic results. Should I Choose a Portable, Built-in or Convertible? That depends on your living situation. If you're in an apartment or rented dwelling a portable is ideal. Choose a built-in as a permanent installation. However, if a move is anticipated in the near future, choose the convertible, which is a portable now and can be a built-in later.

How Hot Must the Water Be? For maximum efficiency, the water temperature for automatic dishwashing should be 130 degrees - 150 degrees Fahrenheit. It can be checked with a meat or candy thermometer at the kitchen sink. How Much Hot Water Does a Dishwasher Use? The machine does not "fill up." It efficiently uses approximately two gallons for each wash and rinse. Therefore, one load will require between 6 and 8 gallons, depending on the type of cycle used.

Must I Pre-Rinse? It is definitely not necessary to pre-rinse dishes before putting them in the dishwasher. Simply scrape off food particles as you would for regular dishwashing.

What About Using the Dishwasher for Good China? Fine china is probably much safer from breakage in the dishwasher than it is when washed by hand. Most china is glazed which protects the finish and makes it safe for dishwasher use. However, it is a good idea to check this with the china manufacturer. Hand-painted china is usually not dishwasher proof.

Must I Use a Special Detergent? It is very important that detergent specifically designated for automatic dishwasher is used. It is formulated for this purpose only. The brand and amount will depend upon individual water conditions. Hard water requires more detergent than soft water.

What Does a Rinse Agent Do? A rinse agent helps to eliminate spotting and filming by sheeting the water off completely. It is particularly useful in hard water areas. An automatic rinse agent dispenser is an available feature on many dishwashers.

For further dishwasher information and your free buying guide on dishwashers, contact the home economist at Calgary Power, Box 1900, Calgary, Alberta.
